Crafting an Industry for a Modern Vision

The EIF2018 theme is Crafting an Industry for a Modern Vision and is inspired by the setting for EIF2018, Trinity College Dublin. The conference will challenge our traditions on the one hand and our bravery on the other, to inspire our industry to be outward focused and relevant for a modern vision in our ever changing consumer and risk landscape.

Conference Micro Themes

The Global Perspective

Human Capital

Regulation

Innovation & Technology

The European Insurance Forum (EIF) is the flagship event of the Insurance Ireland annual calendar with a target of 400+ delegates for 2018.

It is designed for senior industry professionals, c-suite executives and stakeholders from across all our industry sectors.

It will incorporate Insurance Ireland's previous Annual President's Conference and include a President's Gala Dinner.

We are hosting it at Trinity College, Dublin, a first for EIF. It's a unique venue with 6 experiences and spaces. We will:

- / Occupy the Edmund Burke Theatre for the main event
- / Own the Arts Block open space for networking
- / Take over the Douglas Hyde Gallery for exclusive meet ups
- / Experience a post event private tour of the Book of Kells
- / Hold a private cocktail reception in the Old Library
- / Host Insurance Ireland's President's Gala Dinner in the Dining Hall

We will be running a targeted marketing campaign to our unique network of industry professionals and stakeholders.

The programme content will be informed by our EIF2018 Advisory Committee, drawn from all segments of our membership. The diversity of our Advisory Committee this year gives us great reach into understanding the challenges and opportunities facing our industry in a modern vision.

EIF Strategic Imperatives

Advocacy for the sector: representing our members on regulatory matters.

Demonstrating the strength and contribution of the industry; promoting the insurance ecosystem to attract new firms.

A focus that includes developing insurance capability (skills within the industry) and advancing industry standards for overall market benefit.

Developing and delivering an events portfolio that acts as a platform for our direct engagement with key industry stakeholders.

Creating a national and international media campaign for our key events and securing broad coverage around EIF.

Our Experience

20 years of development and delivery of EIF. A track record of attracting global industry leaders, regulators and political commentators, as well as c-suite and senior decision making delegates and journalists from at home and abroad for this one day insurance conference.

Strong collaborative skills in the international arena: host of the Insurance Europe 8th International Conference & General Assembly, IE2016, 600 delegates, a 50% increase over the previous year.

A reputation of integrity, dedication, strategic understanding and alignment with the issues of the industry and a network to engage with all industry stakeholders nationally and internationally.

EIF to 2017

This strategic conference has been a mainstay of the International Re Industry since 1999.

It has covered critical issues that have impacted the shape of the reinsurance industry and attracted up to 250 delegates at its peak - post the merger of Insurance Ireland and DIMA (Dublin International Insurance & Management Association) in 2017.

II Conference Team

- / Una Coleman, Conference Manager
- / Nessa Feehan, Conference Support
- / Laura Farrell, Director Member Services & Communications
- / John Byrne, Communications Manager
- / Declan Jackson, Director of Government Affairs
- / Kevin Thompson, CEO Champion

Be Informed, Engaged and Excited by your Industry at EIF2018

It blew out all the lights

I could not let the moment pass without writing to compliment and thank you all at Insurance Ireland for the wonderful conference that you organised yesterday. It was my first time attending the European Insurance Forum and I have to say it blew out all the lights. Great organisation, great speakers, and great networking. Everybody I spoke to was on a high. It is by a long way the premier event for International insurers based in Ireland.

Frank Mee, Finance Director | Deputy CEO, Allianz Worldwide Care

Great opportunity to network

Scor was delighted to be the gold sponsor of EIF2017. I thought the team did a fantastic job and 'produced' a terrific conference. Really enjoyed it. Great opportunity to network across the industry. Well done to the Insurance Ireland team.

Aidan Holton, Managing Director at SCOR Global Life Reinsurance Ireland

Impressed by the line up of speakers and the discussion

I was delighted that I was able to attend EIF 2017. It was my first time to attend an EIF conference and I must congratulate the team in Insurance Ireland for a very well organised event. I was particularly impressed by the line up of speakers and the discussion. Indeed both the choice of speakers and topics contributed to a programme which was strategic in nature as well as relevant to someone like me who, at the moment, operates in the domestic insurance sector. I will certainly look forward to next years conference.

Caitriona Somers, INED

Very satisfied with the event and with the contacts we made

On behalf of Enrico and C Consulting International, we thank you for the opportunity of participating at the EIF2017. We were very satisfied with the event and with the contacts we made. Congratulations to Insurance Ireland's team for the excellent organisation in a very good location. But the weather was far too hot for Dublin - although most enjoyable!
